III. ALL AROUND CHAMPION – OPEN, AMATEUR, AMATEUR WALK-TROT, YOUTH, & YOUTH WALK-TROT

A. Eligibility Requirements

1. A horse must qualify in halter and at least three approved performance classes in that classification (i.e., Youth, Youth Walk-Trot, Novice Youth, Amateur, Amateur Walk-Trot, Novice Amateur, or Open).
 - a. Novice Amateur & Amateur Walk-Trot need to show in the Amateur halter class, Novice Youth & Youth Walk-Trot need to show in the Youth halter class, and Open need to show the age & sex division halter class of their horse.
2. You must show to one more than half the judges in your corresponding division to be eligible (i.e., if there are 19 MPHA judges for the year, $\frac{1}{2}$ is $9.5 + 1 = 10.5$, meaning that you would have to show to 11 judges).
 - a. After qualifying in halter and three approved performance classes, points from other classes in your division are added to those totals for determination of All Around, even if not shown to one more than $\frac{1}{2}$ the judges. There is no All Around for Green Classes.
3. The horse/exhibitor combo that accumulates the highest total number of points in that classification, will be awarded the distinction of “All-Around Champion”. In the event of a tie, the horse/exhibitor combo accumulating the most first places will receive the award.

4. The horse/exhibitor combo that accumulates the second highest total number of points in that classification, will be awarded the distinction of “All-Around Reserve Champion”. In the event of a tie, the horse/exhibitor combo accumulating the most first places will receive the award.
